Ethnicity • Migration • Human Rights • Indigeneity
Asian American Studies • Latino Studies • Native American Studies

Nominations due by April 18, 2014 at 2 pm

The Committee on Ethnicity, Migration, Rights (EMR) would like to recognize the best senior thesis on the topic of ethnicity, migration, indigeneity, or human rights. Individual professors, departments, or concentrations may nominate candidates, or candidates may nominate their own thesis. Complete Nominations are due Friday, April 18, 2014 by 2 pm in the EMR Office located at 2 Arrow Street, Room 431.

A complete nomination will include five components:
(1) one hard copy of the candidate’s thesis
(2) one electronic copy of the candidate’s thesis, submitted on a CD, flash drive, or via email to estudies@fas.harvard.edu
(3) one hard copy of readers’ comments on nominated thesis, if and when available
(4) one hard copy of the candidate’s CV
(5) one letter of recommendation supporting the candidate’s submission, submitted in a sealed and signed envelope or via email from recommender to estudies@fas.harvard.edu

The winner will be notified in May. Questions should be directed to Tessa Lowinske Desmond at tessa_desmond@harvard.edu or 617.495.4048.
